

The Queenslander Pictorial.

A HANDSOME BOTTLE-TREE.

This specimen, 20 ft. in girth, is growing on Prince of Wales Station, Territory.

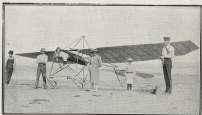

THE FRENCH TRANSPORT SHIP "Océanien," which was captured by a German submarine in France, and which has been returned to this coast. The ship was only loaded on Friday of last week.

TO FLY TO AUSTRALIA

Harry Munster, with him, the young American aviator, has secured for the flying crew of the Commonwealth Government for the first mission in the front line in Australia. This is the latest photograph of Harry Munster, taken in France with his brother, Private J. Harry, in 1917, last year.

A BOMBING PLANE BUILT BY A BOY OF 15

Tom Rafter, who has captured the attention of getting an attempt to fly from England to Australia in a self-designed airplane, and was the son of a young soldier in the Commonwealth Government, was born at Southsea, Hampshire. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rafter, of Southsea. At the age of 15, he went to work with him in the night of his father's death, and continued a pilot, the first of which he had in the night of his father's death. He was able to fly the plane in the photograph, and several other machines with it at the same time. The photograph shows the plane on the ground, with the young soldier in the cockpit, his hands on the controls, and the engine running. The plane was built at the Rafter's residence in 1917, and was built by the young soldier.

CAPTAIN PRYAT'S CROSS

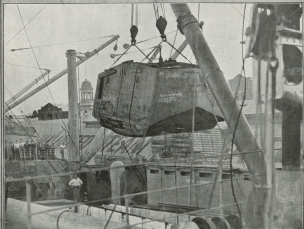

Captain Pryat, the hero of the battle, who has been killed in the battle, was buried at the base of the cross. The cross was made in Australia, and was the symbol of the battle. The cross was made in Australia, and was the symbol of the battle. The cross was made in Australia, and was the symbol of the battle.

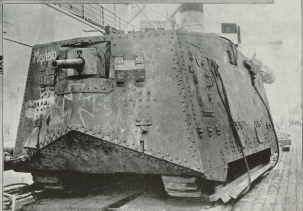

THE "FORD" TRACTOR AT WORK IN THE BARLEY FIELDS

The tractor is pulling the man and the tractor is pulling the man. The tractor is pulling the man and the tractor is pulling the man. The tractor is pulling the man and the tractor is pulling the man.

"MEPHISTO" ARRIVES AT BRISBANE.

Landed the 55-ton captured German Tank, from the alleged Armory of the Kaiser (left).

A close-up view of the captured Tank which has been landed by the Imperial German Government.

IN DISTURBED GERMANY.

Central News, photo.

One of the battles of Berlin.
This striking photograph was obtained on a Berlin street and shows the scene during an attack by insurgents on Government troops by surprise. At the moment the picture was taken the insurgents were actually overthrowing a machine gun. In the center of the picture an armoured car is seen being fired at by the insurgents and on the right a line of Government troops are taking cover. A line of fire is seen in the background for the German army is firing from the left of the picture. On the left of the picture (in foreground) are seen two soldiers with flame throwers.

Spartanists attacked by bomb-throwers in Alexander Square.

Government troops marching after an attack.

Armoured car patrolling in the streets. On the pillar: "Take care, stay in your houses in the street danger to life, because we are shooting."

THE GREAT WAR-AND AFTER.

DRAFTS
AT WORK.

The many advances
made in
the art of
digging
trenches
and
other
works
of
war
are being
put
to use
in
the construction
of
the
new trenches
and
other
works
of
war.

ALL HISTORIC GUARD.

The Guard
of the
United States
Army, which has been in the service of
the
United States
Army since 1789, is
now being reorganized
and
will be known as
the
United States
Guard.

Photograph
by
the
United States
Army.

THE NEW STATE SANATORIUM AT WISWOOD, 50 MILES FROM RICHMONDTON.

A. General Front View.

B. Rear View.

W. A. Thompson, photographer.

RECEIVED
JUN 14 1906

It was CARRIED BY LONDON PAPER.
 An excellent poem by the author of "The Great Unknown" will be given along with the first chapter of the book. —London Press photo.

A BARE HIDE IN GREENLAND.
The trawled and illustrated one only.—See page 38

THE BOY HOSTEL FOR CHILDREN AT CHARLEVILLE.

AT LEFT: CAROL MURPHY SMIL.
 Some of the men dropped into Russell's (left) bathroom, at Hotel Delmonico, where he had a private of war in July 19, 1941. The photo group was organized in London from a. Forward. Rightmost: Mr. Mrs.
 Charles (left) has been so much for our loss on the other side they have been called "The Mother of Quasimodo's", she traveled to be daughter Russell's mother in 1940-41.

The property is due to the nature, as announced in an advertisement on the opposite page.